

Maria Androulaki

Maria Androulaki (Greece) is Research fellow-Musicologist at the Hellenic Folklore Research Centre of the Academy of Athens. Her main research interest centres on Greek folk songs and music (recording, transcription, archiving, analysis, context). Her Fieldwork includes research in Continental Greece, in Crete and in the islands of the Dodecanese, where she gathered folkloric material on every aspect of folk culture, in written form, photographs and videos and made musical recordings. She has presented papers in several conferences and published widely in scholarly journals. Her publications combine the analysis of musical practices with the exploration of their cultural and social role.
