

Jean-François Cosandier

Born on May 19th 1948, in La Chaux-de-Fonds, Switzerland. Married, two children, lives in Neuchâtel, Switzerland.

After studies in literature and history at the University of Neuchâtel, Switzerland, he had a training in Information Science at the Institut national des techniques de la documentation (INTD) in Paris in 1978-1979. Since 1980 he is head of the documentation and archives department at the Radio Suisse Romande (RSR) in Lausanne, the French-speaking public broadcaster of Switzerland. He contributed to develop for the RSR a digital asset management system named SIRANAU (Système intégré radio pour l'archivage numérique audio).

He has a charge of lecturer at the High School of Management, Information and documentation section, in Geneva.

J.-F. Cosandier is president of the Groupe romand de documentation (GRD).

Within the framework of the European project MEMORIES (2006 – 2009), J.-F. Cosandier was coordinator for the Users' Operations (WP2) and Dissemination (WP7).

Jean-François Cosandier
Radio Suisse Romande, Service Documentation + Archives
40, avenue du Temple
CH-1010 Lausanne (Switzerland)
Tel. +41 21 318 65 96 Fax +41 21 318 19 36
Mobile +41 79 257 12 86
E-mail: Jean-Francois.Cosandier@rsr.ch
<http://www.rsr.ch>