

CURRÍCULUM VITAE

Clara Inés Casilimas Rojas

---

Mrs. Casilimas is Anthropologist from Universidad Nacional de Colombia, and Magister in Ethnolinguistic from Universidad de los Andes. She has undertaken research of two ethnic groups of the Chibcha language family; has researched in archive primary sources about Muisca ethnic group of the XVIth, XVIIth and XVIIIth centuries and she has made field work to collect linguistic data into Uwa community of Angosturas (Tame – Arauca – Colombia).

Her publications include manuals and articles about archival and linguistic themes.

At the present time, she is teaching about Schedule Retention and Archival Appraisal in Universidad Pedagógica y Tecnológica de Colombia. She has been working in National Archives from 1992. Today she coordinates Group of Norms and the Archival Policies and she is leading the Project of Recovery heritage documentary ethnic of Colombia.

Nowadays she is organizing an exhibition on documents and linguistic diversity in Colombia.