

Julia Lazaridou-Elmaloglou Curriculum Vitae

---

She studied at the Orfeio Conservatory of Athens (Piano Diploma, 1992) and at the Royal Academy of Music (BMus (Perf), 1997). She continued postgraduate studies at the City University (MA in Music, 1998) and the University of Athens (Phd in Musicology, 2004).

She has worked at the Music Library of Greece 'Lilian Voudouri' as general supervisor and coordinator for the projects Creation of a complete unit of documentation and promotion of Greek music and A course in modern Greek history through the Mikis Theodorakis archive (Information Society, 3rd CSF). She has taught at the University of Athens and collaborated with the Greek Parliament Foundation for the exhibition Mikis Theodorakis: Composer, Politician, Thinker.

She has written articles for musicological journals and concert programmes for the most important Greek cultural organizations. She has participated in international conferences and has given concerts in Greece, Great Britain, Italy and Cyprus. She is Professor of Piano at the Northern Suburbs Conservatory of Athens.