

Claus Peter Gallenmiller

Claus Peter Gallenmiller was born in 1961 and lives in southern part of Germany. He is M. Sc. in Electrical Engineering and is working for a large international electronic company. Since more than 30 years he is collecting shellac records with Jazz and dance music from the 20's to the 40's. His large private collection has been fully catalogued in a database and a considerable part of it has already been digitalized. In the last 10 years he has developed a special database which meets all the requirements for work on discography. He is also an expert on re-recording and digital sound restoration. In 2000 he joined the GHT (Gesellschaft für Historische Tonträger, Vienna) where he has organized several workshops and Discography Conferences. Today he supports the digitizing project of the GHT collection and the public access to this information. He has worked for GHT as a scientific consultant for many years and is now Vice President of GHT.
