

Brigitte Vézina

Consultant

Traditional Creativity, Cultural Expressions and Cultural Heritage Section

Global IP Issues Division

World Intellectual Property Organization

Brigitte currently works at the World Intellectual Property Organization (WIPO) on IP issues related to traditional cultural expressions (TCEs). Upon joining WIPO in July 2006, she first worked in the Creative Industries Division, where she examined the contribution of the creative industries to national economies. Until June 2006, she worked for the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization (UNESCO) in Paris, in their copyright department. Prior to obtaining an LL.M. at Georgetown University in 2005, Brigitte worked as a lawyer with the Montreal-based IP law firm Léger Robic Richard. After earning a baccalauréat en droit degree in 2002 from the Université de Montréal, she attended the École du Barreau du Québec and was called to the Bar of Québec in 2003. Brigitte speaks French, English, Spanish and German.